If you want somewhere new and exciting to explore this summer, Mexico should be the first place on your list. Mexico is a stunning country below North America and is full of character, amazing weather and festivals all year round.

The summer time is the ideal time to visit this amazing part of the world, and if you book a stay with Fairfield Inn & Suites Queretaro you can spend time exploring the historical sites, natural wonders and paranormal spots. Here are the top 5 things you have to see this year in Mexico.

1. Cancún and the Mayan Riviera

The beaches of Mexico are some of the most popular in the world, and it isn't hard to see why. With crystal clear waters, soft sands and blue skies, there is no better place to spend a summer's day. The beaches in Cancun offer a wide range of activities such as diving, snorkelling, swimming and surfing. You can spend a day just enjoying the coast and having some fun in the water.

2. Puerto Vallarta

This coastal city is a beautiful part of the country which remains untouched by modern development. If you want to travel back to simpler times and enjoy the peace and call of a classic Mexican city, this is the ideal place to be. Puerto Vallarta is full unique stores, amazing food and some peaceful green spaces.

3. Cabo San Lucas and the Los Cabos Corridor

If you travel down to the southern tip of Mexico you will be able to enjoy the most stunning beach in the whole of Mexico. The Los Cabos Corridor is a 30km strip of pristine beaches which is the perfect place to relax, take in the summer sun and get that tan you've always wanted. You can even enjoy a cocktail on the beach as you watch other members of your family swimming in the sea.

4. Copper Canyon

Situated in the city which birthed every celebrity's favourite breed of dog: the Copper Canyon in Chihuahua is the Mexican equivalent to the Grand Canyon in the USA. It is one of the most breathtaking sights in the entire country and is the perfect place to take photographs and make some amazing memories. The walls of the canyon are a striking copper with green running throughout, and it is really a beautiful place to spend your day.

5. Chichén Itzá: The Mayan Metropolis

You may already know that Mexico is the home of the ancient race known as the Mayans. If you take a visit to the city of Chichén Itzá, you will be able to truly travel back and see the full extent of how the Mayan people lived their lives. This is one of the most popular destinations in the country and it isn't hard to see why. If you love to learn about history and about people, this is the perfect place to spend your day. You will be able to see the Pyramid of Kukulcán as well as a thousand-year-old observatory which stands tall in the space and proves how advanced these people really were.
