

Space.NK Beauty Sale Finds Christmas 2017

I'm writing this blog post at almost 1am on Boxing Day because I just had to tell you all about the amazing deals I found on Space NK. Each year I get excited to hit their sales and splurge a little, and this year I indulged in some wonderful products from By Terry that I am super excited to use.

Luxury isn't usually something that is really discounted, so finding a deal or any money off at all is amazing. I love trying new products but sometimes the price tag can deter me, not because I don't believe it's worth the money – but because I simply might not have it to spend (I buy way too much food...)

A few products I picked up are ones I've been wanting to try for a long time, and others I picked up on a whim. I really wish I could splurge on the Kevyn Aucoin set but alas, my purse shall not allow it! Kevyn's brand is high up on my list to try. I have some products from By Terry that I love and especially after seeing Lydia Millen's high praise of the brand, my splurge is justified for quality. I remember the days I would splurge on the 2 items for £5 on Boots Natural Collection and I'd be so happy. I'm glad 10 years later I still feel that same joy over makeup, I hope it never goes away.

I hope to show you all soon what is on my makeup wish list, because believe it or not I do want more...

Anyway, here are my top picks for the Space NK sale and a few items in there I bought myself. Keep your eye out for the blog post/Instagram pictures of the products when they arrive. I decided to pick up:

- By Terry Preciosity Tree Decoration Baume de Rose Lip

Care

- By Terry Preciosity Flash Light Elixir
- Becca Shimmering Skin Perfector Poured Crème Highlighter
- By Terry Preciosity Terrybly Velvet Rouge Set

Merry Christmas everyone and I shall be back soon with some more blog posts and my 2017 summary, which I am super excited to write!

Magnitone Limited Edition
Barefaced | A Skincare
Christmas Gift

It seems like for a minute skincare took a backseat whilst the Internet was obsessed with Instagram glam and trying wacky methods to up their beauty game. Thankfully, long gone are the days of using weird objects to apply your makeup and odd skincare tricks. I like to stick with the traditional method, research my skincare and learn about the ingredients inside.

Just like you need good brushes to apply makeup, you need the right skincare tools. I use a lot of products from The Ordinary and i'm Looking to expand my skincare routine. I'm lucky my skin doesn't need much, but I'll get into what I use and love in a different post, otherwise i'll be here forever...

This is where Magnitone comes in. A skincare tool designed to deep cleanse your skin. Magnitone have released two new limited edition colours for Christmas 2017, Rose Gold and Serenity Blue. I received the Serenity Blue colour and it is stunning. Not only is it lightweight but it feels very luxe and the slight metallic finish makes for a beautiful product.

Magnitone is an award winning Vibra-Sonic™ daily deep-cleansing brush. Vibra-Sonic™ technology has a unique combination of sonic oscillations and pulsed vibrations for more effective deep cleansing. It takes only 60 seconds with your favourite cleanser to ensure a deep cleanse that is gentle on your skin. The bristles are so very soft and it is such a lovely experience, my skin feels and looks visibly clearer. I tend not to use this to take my makeup off, I only use it as a double cleanse which I do all of the time.

I get my makeup off with micellar water and then use Liz Earle Cleanse and Polish to remove any build up with the Magnitone. It helps clear my pores and ensure that any skincare I pop on afterwards can soak right in.

I love that Magnitone is great for any skin types. I have normal but dehydrated skin but I know people who love this product that have oily skin and are prone to breakouts. The

There are different brush heads that you can attach to receive different results, I have noticed such difference from using it for a few days. I highly suggest it, especially if you're looking to take your skincare up a notch. Or for a Christmas present for your skincare loving friend.

You can find the Magnitone on offer at Boots here: Magnitone
